

Your responses to these statements provide a starting point for an exploration of responsible resource use.

1. I would never intentionally use someone else's work as my own. Agree | Disagree
2. I would rather use no research materials at all than use them and leave myself open to accidental plagiarism. Agree | Disagree
3. I am familiar with the basic elements of bibliographical citation (author, title, publication information). Agree | Disagree
4. I admit that I can be lazy when it comes to keeping track of bibliographic information. Agree | Disagree
5. I understand the importance of intellectual honesty and respect copyright. Agree | Disagree
6. If I read a source and write about it later on, without using any notes, then it is not plagiarism. Agree | Disagree
7. If I take notes, changing a word or two from the original text, then it is not plagiarism. Agree | Disagree
8. If I use an image from the Internet in my work, it is not plagiarism. Agree | Disagree
9. I am comfortable with the note-taking process; I use a note-taking strategy to keep me on track. Agree | Disagree
10. If information from a source is paraphrased, then I don't have to cite it. Agree | Disagree
11. If I piece together information from a variety of sources, I will create a good essay. Agree | Disagree
12. I know how to encapsulate quotations effectively, integrating ideas of others effectively into my writing. Agree | Disagree
13. I feel I work best under pressure, such as the night before my assignment is due. Agree | Disagree

Note: Check your responses at <http://www.2Learn.ca/nkh/nkh-plag-activity1.html>.
Click on the Agree | Disagree links.